About Our Schools

It was in 1984 when we started teaching German as a foreign language. Since then thousands of students from all over the world joined our classes and many of them returned a second and sometimes a third time.

Both of our schools are in the very centre of the two most attractive German cities: Munich and Berlin. Thanks to our highly qualified teachers, the welcoming atmosphere and the modern teaching facilities, we have earned a very good international reputation. Our classrooms are equipped with the latest technology to support the students' learning process.

Teaching Methods

The basis of our courses is the modern usage of the German language. We focus on developing the understanding of both, the spoken and the written language, as well as the ability to express oneself. The teaching follows a clear syllabus and is geared towards training grammar and sentence structures and expanding vocabulary. The variety of teaching methods guarantees optimum learning success. In individual, partner or group work, you will improve your reading and listening comprehension as well as written and oral expression. Every year a great number of festivals and parades – such as ‘Carnival of Cultures’ – are filling the streets of Berlin. People enjoy the multi-nationality of Berlin’s inhabitants. Munich

The capital of Bavaria is a charming city at the foot of the Alps famous for the Oktoberfest and loved for its relaxed atmosphere. Sightseeing tours often start at “Marienplatz”, the very city center (three minutes walk to our school), with its impressive neogothic city hall and show the visitors countless baroque churches, neoclassic buildings from the early 19th century and the castle “Schloss Nymphenburg” with its lovely park. In summer you can make new friends in a beer garden, enjoy one of the many lakes in the surroundings of Munich or simply relax in the “Englischer Garten”. Snow covers the city in wintertime. People go sledging in “Olympia Park” or skiing in the nearby Alps. Don’t miss the popular “Christkindl Markets” where you can experience traditional Christmas ambience and buy nice gifts.
