EDITORIAL

GLS has really grown in the last 3 decades. When I founded the school in 1983, there were hardly more than 70 or 80 students at the same time. Now, 30 years later, we welcome more than 5.000 students every year. And GLS has built a campus that is unique in Berlin, maybe even in Germany – including more than 130 single accommodation units. GLS has become a big school, one of the biggest in Berlin. One thing, however, has never changed. GLS still has a very personal feel about it. My staff know their students, and students are welcome to come to the office anytime should they have questions or problems. We are very happy with what we achieved, but don't expect us to pause. We will continue to improve.

Barbara Jaeschke
Founder and Managing Director

ABOUT GLS

EST. 1983

The letters GLS stand for German Language School. GLS was founded in 1983 by Barbara Jaeschke, who originally trained as a high school teacher. Mrs. Jaeschke is married with 3 children and continues to manage the school she founded.

GLS is the only language school in Germany with a 16.000 sqm urban campus including 2 hotels. The facilities on campus are second to none in Europe: 66 bright classrooms, 2 restaurants specializing in modern German cuisine, 50 apartments and 72 hotel rooms.

PORTFOLIO

GLS offers programs for both adult and junior students:

FOR ADULTS: German courses, internships in Berlin, university placement in German (see page 030), TestDaF examination center

FOR JUNIORS (7 – 19 years): Summer schools in Berlin and Munich, High School in Germany

TEST CENTER

GLS is a test center for TestDaF and telc German.

STAR SCHOOL GERMANY

GLS has repeatedly received the Star School Germany award. The awards are bestowed every year in London by Study Travel Magazine. GLS is an independent school with an independent spirit: it continues to be run by its original founder, Barbara Jaeschke, who established the school in 1983.

5.000

More than 5.000 students from up to 60 countries attend GLS courses every year. The GLS campus can accommodate 500 students at the same time.

GLS CAMPUS BERLIN

PRIME LOCATION

GLS is located in the very center of Berlin, in über-trendy district of Prenzlauerberg

The district was a low-income neighbourhood in the early 1900s. After World War II it was absorbed in the communist part of Berlin with many intellectuals and artists choosing to take up residence here.

After the fall of the Berlin Wall the neighbourhood boomed and became one of the trendiest districts in Berlin. Many of the main Berlin highlights are within walking distance to GLS.

TRENDY NEIGHBOURHOOD

The GLS campus is right on Kastanienallee, nicknamed «casting alley», because it's a popular location for fashion and film shoots. More than 40 bars, cafes and fashion boutiques featuring Berlin designers are right next door to GLS.

This stylish store is just across the street from GLS: "Thatchers" is fashion made in Berlin, the store was hyped by the press and cited as proof of the new cosmopolitan spirit in Berlin.

GLS CAMPUS BERLIN

The Lichtblick Cinema is an independent arthouse cinema right next to GLS. Lichtblick shows mainly classic and arthouse movies along with documentaries.

The cinema is located in the oldest building of the district.

HISTORY & ARCHITECTURE

The GLS campus reflects Berlin's history.

The main school building was built in 1960 on ruins left by World War II. The style, with its faintly Bauhaus signature, is very modern, and very dynamic.

The hotel is the jewel of the campus, a Berlin landmark under monument protection. Built in 1902 as a public bath house, it was closed down in 1986 due to damages in the basin. In 2011 GLS renovated the dilapidated building, re-opening it as Hotel Oderberger (see page 038).

GERMAN COURSES

METHOD

GLS uses the communicative approach: German is the only language spoken in class.

Teachers act as facilitators, encouraging students to speak German as much as possible. Students get all the corrections, grammar and vocabulary they need to take them to the next level, but the priority is on active speaking.

GLS teaches in tandem, i.e. 2 teachers tutor 1 class and alternate at every break.

LEVELS

We teach German at all levels ranging from beginners to advanced (levels as defined by the Common European Reference Framework):

- A = elementary
- B = intermediate
- C = advanced

PLACEMENT TEST

For immediate assessment of a student's level GLS provides a free online test (on www.gls-berlin.de).

When students arrive in Berlin, a placement test consisting of a written and an oral part ensures they will share a class with others of a similar level.

PROGRESS CHECK

A written evaluation test every Friday (duration: 20 minutes) allows students to check their progress. In addition, personalized feedback from teachers is available at any time.

PREP COURSES FOR EXAMS

EVERY YEAR MORE THAN 300 STUDENTS TAKE THEIR EXAMS WITH GLS. THE PASS RATE IS

GLS is a test center for telc and TestDaF in Berlin. Prep courses for TestDaf and telc Deutsch finish with the exam taking place at GLS.

GLS also prepares for Goethe certificates.

GERMAN COURSES

WHAT LEVEL SHOULD A STUDENT HAVE WHEN TAKING A PREP COURSE?

A level close to the one of the respective exam. The prep courses aren't level-raisers, they prepare for the respective exam format. For example: If a student would like to get ready for TestDaf or its equivalent, telc C1 Hochschule, he or she should already be on level C1.

TELC OR GOETHE – WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE?

Telc is an official testing body with headquarters in Frankfurt and tests 10 languages, the Goethe Institut only German. There are no significant differences. As both - Goethe and telc - are recognized testing bodies, simply take the exam that suits you best in terms of testing dates and/or price (telc exams tend to be cheaper than the Goethe exams).

As far as the German tests go, the testing formats are very similar, albeit not identical. Both are paper-based, with a written and an oral part. Goethe exams can be taken only at a Goethe Institut, telc exams at testing centers worldwide. GLS is a telc test center in Berlin so it is quite convenient for students wanting to combine prep course and exam.

WHERE DO THE EXAMS TAKE PLACE?

TestDaf and telc at GLS, the Goethe exams at the Goethe Institut. GLS takes care of the registration, so students don't need to worry about that.

TEACHER TRAINING

GLS IS A TEACHER TRAINING CENTER FOR TEACHERS OF GERMAN AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE.

GLS has a special focus on teacher training and teacher development. GLS is certified by IH International House and prepares candidates for the IH Certificate for Teaching German as a Foreign Language (IHC German). The certificate is equivalent to the CELTA certificate in teaching English and enables those holding it to teach German as a foreign language in the private sector in Germany and abroad. Prep courses for the certificate last four weeks and are bookable for applicants who speak German on a native-speaker level (i.e. advanced C2).

CUSTOMIZED TRAINING

For non-native speakers who teach German (on levels B2 and C1) we offer a customized teacher training: They can select modules of the IH teacher training course (see list on the right).

We focus on a learner-centered methodology and teaching techniques that activate and involve learners in communicative learning. We also provide an overview of different published teaching materials (paper-based and online) for German teachers.

TOPICS AVAILABLE FOR TEACHER TRAINING ARE:

Organizational skills:

Lesson planning
classroom management
social interaction
teacher- and learner talking time

Teaching skills:

Communicative teaching presentation-practice-production test-teach-test
guided discovery of language

Student focus:

Improving reading listening writing
pronouncing skills

Materials:

Course books
extra material
recycling materials
smartboards and blended learning

GERMAN COURSES

WHO ARE THESE COURSES FOR?

For non-native speakers who teach German as a foreign language at elementary or secondary schools worldwide.

WHICH COURSE FORMAT DO YOU RECOMMEND?

The private mini-group. If participants bring colleagues, they can share costs.

WILL PARTICIPANTS RECEIVE A CERTIFICATE?

They will not receive the IHC German certificate, as prerequisite for that is participation in a longer course, but they will receive a GLS certificate documenting their participation in a teacher training course.

INTERNSHIPS IN BERLIN (UNPAID)

GLS students can complement their German course with an internship in Berlin: GLS has excellent contacts within Berlin's business community and has arranged internships in places like the German parliament, the Literaturfestival Berlin, with Berlin lawyers and architects.

DURATION

4 week German course + internship of 6–12 weeks

PROFESSIONAL FIELDS

Administration	IT & Communication Technologies
Advertisement	Law
Architecture	Marketing
Consulting	NGOs and Political Organizations
Culture and cultural institutions	Public Relations
Ecology	Social Work
Event Management	Tourism
Graphic & Design

REQUIREMENTS

Minimum age 18, completed secondary education, participation in a German language course of min. 4 weeks (longer if students need more time to get to level B1, required by German host companies).

GERMAN COURSES

GLS ARRANGES BETWEEN 60–90 INTERNSHIPS EVERY YEAR AND OFFERS A FREE COACHING SESSION FOR FUTURE INTERNS.

FAQ

AS MANY GERMAN PROFESSIONALS SPEAK ENGLISH – WHY IS GERMAN AT LEVEL B1 A PREREQUISITE?

Companies simply insist on it and there are many reasons for that – like PC programs or keyboards labelled in German. Not everybody in Germany is fluent in English, and an intern who can communicate effectively in German is more valuable to them.

HOW DO YOU FIND COMPANIES FOR INTERNATIONAL INTERNS?

GLS does inhouse language training for lots of companies and institutions in Berlin, so we know their Human Resources departments quite well.

CAN YOU GUARANTEE AN INTERNSHIP?

Yes, we can – we check every application, and if we accept and confirm it, students can be sure to be placed in a Berlin company. They won't get the position immediately, as the companies insist on a personal interview, but that is no problem: our coaching sessions make sure that the interview is successful.

WILL INTERNS GET A LETTER OF REFERENCE?

Yes, of course. They will get a «Praktikumszeugnis», i.e. a letter of reference from their Berlin host company.

UNIVERSITY PATHWAY GERMANY

German universities offer excellent study opportunities to students from all over the world. The fees they charge are very low compared to those in many other countries. Getting access, however, can be a challenging process. And that's where the GLS pathway program comes in: GLS cooperates with German universities and offers:

1. A conditional acceptance letter for a BA degree program in Germany (prerequisite for a student visa)
2. Preparatory German courses advancing students to the level of German they need

STUDY FIELDS

Applicants can choose a BA Bachelor Program in study fields such as:

- Design
- Engineering
- Informatics
- Business
- Health Care
- Social Work

Please note: MA programs available only on request.

UNIVERSITIES

GLS cooperates with several universities in Germany that issue conditional acceptance letters for GLS applicants. Conditional acceptance letters are needed to apply for a student visa. Please visit our website: gls-berlin.de for more information about university locations and programs.

COSTS

GLS charges a university placement fee. Additional costs are tuition for the German course and exam fees for TestDaF or telc C1 Hochschule.

HOW TO APPLY

Please send us the applicant's documents (a simple copy of high school diploma and, if existing, university certificates). We will check the documents for free and outline a personalized roadmap to university, detailing all necessary stations and the costs entailed. If that outline is accepted, we will register your applicant for our university pathway program.

SERVICES INCLUDE

- Free checking of a student's documents prior to arrival
- Free roadmap to university, customized to a student's academic background
- Conditional acceptance letter of a German University
