CASA – a member of the Association of Tandem-Schools (Tandem International) and a representative of the Tandem-Quality Seal – sponsors the intercultural exchange among people from different countries through the Tandem-Language Learning Partnerships.

Intensive Courses German as a Foreign Language

One of the main offers from CASA are the intensive courses in the area of German as a Foreign Language.

Our courses are aimed to young adults from all over the world who would like to study in Germany or for those who would prefer to improve their German knowledge for business or academic purposes.

At CASA you can study all-year-round from beginner level to the TestDaF-Exam, with which you acquire the linguistic qualifications to study in Germany.

TestDaF-Exam Center

The international exam TestDaF is a language exam that qualifies for College or University studies in Germany. At CASA you can take the TestDaF exam several times during the year.

For each established exam date, it is offered a 6-week long preparation course. During this preparation course, it will be intensively practiced the four skills required at the exam and you may take part in a test exam.

Summer Courses Junior Courses

Summer Courses:

For those who have only a short time to come to Bremen, we carry every year in July and August a Summer Course. Besides the intensive language training in small study-groups composed of international students, there is a variety of cultural and leisure activities in the program: City Tour, Factory Visit at Beck's, Summer Party, Weekend Excursions to the North Sea and Visits to Museums and Cinemas.

Junior Courses:

Within the framework of the Summer Courses in July, we receive many young visitors between 14 and 17 years old from all over the world, who we accommodate in host-families in Bremen. We offer a combination of intensive language classes, a variety of cultural programs and sports activities.

Classes for Companies: German as a Foreign Language English, Spanish & French

Before, during or after the working time – for whatever time and place you consider convenient. It is not you who have to fit to our schedule, but we who will fit to yours, whenever you need us.

To start we apply a Demand Analysis: with the help of our classification tests we check your knowledge and suggest the material and procedures for the classes. This way the content of the language course will be designed in close consultation with you. The main points in the classes among other things are: Telephone Calls, Commercial Correspondence and Presentations.

Spanish and English

With our qualified, native-speaker teachers from Spain, Latin America, England or U.S.A., you will study English or Spanish in small groups from 6 to 8 participants in a pleasant surrounding on Bismarkstraße n. 5 and at Am Speicher XI n. 1 in Walle.

The emphasis of the classes is on the spoken language. Our program offers:

- ▶ Compact Evening Courses (beginner – advanced)
- ▶ Brush-up Courses
- ▶ Business Courses
- ▶ Weekend Courses
- ▶ Educational Holiday Courses

Those who would like to study a foreign language in its country of origin, may enroll via CASA at one of the 30 Partner-Schools in the Tandem-Net – Spain, Italy, France, England and Ireland are possible options.
